A SPLENDID GIFT.

TWENTY-FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS GIVEN BY NEW YORKER

To Thornwell Orphausge through a Friend in Virginia-Judge Phlegar of Rose noke Has for Years Been Keeping the Clinton Home for Children.

The State.

Roanoke, Va., June 24 -For over 20 years, Judge A. A. Phlegar, formerly of the State supreme court and the Superintendent of the Presbyte rian Sunday school at Christiansburg, Va., has been working up an annual Christmas offering to the Thornwell orphanage, located at Clinton, S. C. Last Christmas the amount contributed by the school was over $600. Besides this regular annual offering, the judge always has an eye to its welfare and recently an elder of the Radford, Va., Presbyterian church paid $1,000 for a perpetual scholarship which provides annually the whole cost of an orphan.

Judge Phlegar today announced that a gentleman of New York, with whom he had business relations and to whom he had explained the work ing of the orphanage, had sent him a check for $25,000 to be turned over to the Thornwell orphanage.

While Judge Phlegar withholds the name of the New Yorker referred to, it is believed here that he is H. C. McHarg, who has been associated with Judge Phlegar as a joint receiver of the Virginia Coal and Iron company.

Cost of Boer War.

The Cobden Club puts the cost of the Boer war at over a billion and it thinks it would have been better to spend the money in enlarging the endowment of Oxford and Cam bridge. There can be no doubt of ence. this-that if the billion was spent for a less object than saving the em pire from destruction it was wasted. Nothing less than the preservation of the national domain-including in that term the aggregation of Eng land, Australia, South Africa, India and Canada-would be motive enough for such an outlay. It is, however, a matter of dispute whether yielding to the Transvaal and the consequent loss of South Africa meant necessarily the dissolution of the empire. It is questioned whether a conflict sooner of later with the Transvaal was really inevitable, a represented, or was unnecesarily brought about by the aggressiveness of Mr. Chamberlain. The latter contends that Mr. Kruger was the ag gressor and would not keep the peace while Mr. Kruger maintains the op posite. The truth possibly lies be tween the extreme contentions. Both statesmen were opinionative and uncompromising. The outsider is hardly in a position to decide which was most at fault. What is clear in that somebody blundered dreadfully Ambition has rarely cost the victims so much in blood and treasure.-Baltimore Sun.

B. B. EVANS CASE.

Postponed Until the Next Term of the Ses-Slops Court for Richland.

[News and Courier.] Columbia, June 23.—Special: The Court of General Sessions con vened to-day, Judge Aldrich presid ing. The matter of chief interest to the public was the postponement of the case of Major Barnard B Evans, charged with the murder of Capt. Griffin. The postponement was granted on the showing of Mr. Andrew Crawford, one of the attorneys for Evans, that two very material witnesses were absent from the State, although diligent effort had been made to obtain their presence. He promised that they would be here next time. It was not, of course, mentioned, as a ground for continuance, but it is a fact that two of Mr. Evans' attorneys are now in the campaign running for United States Senator-John Gary Evans and George Johnstone. Mr. N. G. Evans, another attorney, is sick, and Major W. T. Gary, of Augusta, Ga., has been elected Superior Court Judge, the duties of which may prevent his appearance at Court. Another case which has been hanging over for several terms will be tried this time. It is that of W. B. Smith, charged with murder. He is a white man, who killed Howard Allen in a gambling game.

Queen Wilhelmina when in health nsists on knowing the contents of every document she signs. In case of doubt she summons an expert to explain the matter to her. Herein she follows the example of Queen Victoria who always acted on this principle though she had to sign an average of 200 document a day.

How About Your Heart

Feel your pulse a few minutes. Is it regular? Are you short of breath, after slight exertion as going up stairs, sweeping, walking, etc? Do you have pain in left breast, side or between shoulder blades, choking sensations, fainting or smothering spells, inability to lie on left side? If you have any of these symptoms you certainly have a weak heart, and should immediately take
